University Libraries Gifts ~ Donation Agreement

I (we) give absolute and irrevocable ownership of the materials described below to the University of New Mexico Foundation on behalf of the University Libraries. I (we) also recognize that the UNM Foundation and University Libraries may make use of these materials in any way that is deemed appropriate, including disposal, transfer to another state agency, or sale. The Foundation and University Libraries cannot provide an appraisal of the value of donations. Donors should seek an outside appraisal before donating materials. UNM will send a letter acknowledging the gift to the address provided below.
