Notes:

The Legislature met biannually for 60 days from 1912 through 1965.

 Dates do not coincide with 60 or 30 day calendar sessions. The days listed are legislative days rather than calendar days.

After 1965, by Constitutional Amendment (1964), the New Mexico State Legislature meets annually, commencing on the third Tuesday of January – 60 days during odd-numbered years and 30 days during the even-numbered years.
